This is a non-final office action for application number 10/797,459, Lawn Waste Bag Holder, filed on March 10, 2004.

Response to Amendment

The examiner hereby respectfully withdraws the finality of the last Office action.

The indicated allowability of claims 10 and 11 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Buckley. Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow.

Cancellation of Claims

Claims 1 and 3 have been canceled per applicant's request.

Claim Objections

Claims 7-9, 14 and 16 are objected to because of the following informalities: in claim 7, line 1, "funnel" should be changed to --support--; in line 1 of claims 8 and 9, "funnel" should be changed to --support frame--; and in claim 14, line 1, "funnel" should be changed to --support--, to be consistent with the limitation cited in line 8 of claim 5, and in claim 16, line 1, "a vertical support top" should be changed to --a top of at least one of said plurality of vertical supports-- and in line 2, "funnel" should be changed to --support--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 3632

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2 and 4-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

There is an inconsistency between the claimed subject matter and certain portions in the body of the claim relating to functional subject matter, thereby making the scope of the claim unclear. In claim 5 and claim 10 the phrase "a base having dimensions to accommodate a yard waste bag therein," clearly indicates that a subcombination is being claimed. This language would lead the examiner to believe that the applicant intends to claim only the subcombination of "a yard waste bag loading assembly," the yard waste bag being only functionally recited. This presents no problem as long as the body of the claim refers to the subcombination functionally, such as -- said funnel having a mouth that is adapted to be greater than the bag opening size--.

The problem arises when the yard waste bag is positively recited within the body of the claim, such as, "said funnel having a mouth greater than the bag opening size."

Applicant is required to clarify what the claims are intended to be drawn to, i.e., either the yard waste bag loading assembly alone or the combination of the yard waste bag loading assembly and the yard waste bag. Applicant should make the language of the claim consistent with applicant's intent. In formulating a rejection on the merits, the examiner is considering that the claims are drawn to the combination and the claims will be rejected accordingly. If applicant indicates by amendment that the combination claim is the intention, the language in the preamble should be made consistent with the language in the body of the claims. If the intent is to claim the subcombination, then the body of the claims must be amended to remove positive recitation of the combination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent 4,749,158 to Buckley. Buckley discloses a yard waste bag loading assembly (10) comprising: a base (16) having dimensions to accommodate a yard waste bag (25) therein, the yard waste bag having an opening; a plurality of vertical supports (12) extending from the base to a height to accommodate the yard waste bag; a funnel (18) hingeably secured to at least one of the plurality of vertical supports, the funnel having a mouth greater than the bag opening size; wherein the first side is hinged and the funnel is supported on at least one side not adjacent to the first side; and wherein the funnel is supported on both nonadjacent sides adjoining sides adjacent to the first side.

Buckley discloses the claimed invention except for the limitation of the funnel having a hexagonal shape. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the shape of the funnel in Buckley to have been hexagonal for the purpose of providing an aesthetically, different, structural functional funnel and since such a modification merely involves a change in shape which would not have produced any unexpected results.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 5 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Claims 2, 4, 6-9, and 14-18, as they depend from claim 5 and claims 12 and 13, as they depend from claim 10, would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
